

The Bennie Walter Bock II Arts Scholarship Fund Application 2023

Open to 2023 graduating high school seniors looking to study in the ARTS.

The Greater New Braunfels Arts Council offers this scholarship to 2023 graduating high school seniors seeking to study and learn in the industry of the ARTS as a future profession in honor of, and in memory of, our friend Bennie Walter Bock II and his love of art in the New Braunfels and Comal County areas.

ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES: Eligible applicants are 2023 graduating high school seniors (public/private/home school) seeking to study and excel in the industry of the ARTS as a future profession.

1. Any senior attending high school in the New Braunfels, Comal, Seguin, or Navarro ISD attendance boundaries is eligible to apply.
2. Students must plan to attend a college, university, or trade school in Texas and take a minimum of 12 hours in the semester.
3. Students must have an overall "B" average or above as illustrated by their school transcript.

In combination with other art advocates and donors, the Greater New Braunfels Arts Council will award a minimum of $1,000 to the winner of this scholarship. As we receive more donations through March of 2023, this scholarship may benefit several art student applicants with a minimum of $1,000 in scholarship funds.

Funds must be used towards college tuition or fees, art supplies for classes or coursework, or for educational costs.

The Deadline to submit your application is January 31, 2023, 5:00pm. Late applications will not be accepted.

GNBAC will form a panel made up of artists and donors who will vote on the winner/s of this scholarship by March 30, 2023. The winner/s will be announced on March 31, 2023.
